

Tackling inequalities in smoking: past achievements and future challenges to tobacco control in European countries

Conference Programme

Monday 8 December 2014
11.45 – 16.15

European Parliament
Altiero Spinelli
Rue Wiertz 60, B-1000 Brussels
Room A5G-1

SILNE is a three-year European project co-ordinated by the University of Amsterdam, Department of Public Health, Academic Medical Centre, the Netherlands, and receiving financial support from the European Commission in the scope of Seventh Framework Programme (grant agreement no. 278273).

Time		Title	Presenter
11.15	11.45	REGISTRATION
11.45	12.30	Lunch and networking
12.30	13.05	Introduction to the conference and the SILNE project; summary of key messages (10 minutes discussion)	Anton Kunst
13.05	13.40	Inequalities in smoking initiation in Europe: findings of the HBSC and ESPAD surveys (15 minutes discussion)	Matthias Richter
13.40	14.15	Smoking, social networks & policies at secondary schools: a new European survey (15 minutes discussion)	Vincent Lorant
14.15	14.30	Break
14.30	15.05	Inequalities in smoking cessation in Europe: trends in European countries (15 minutes discussion)	Anton Kunst
15.05	15.40	Inequalities in smoking cessation in Europe: findings of the ITC project (15 minutes discussion)	Gera Nagelhout
15.40	16.15	Towards recommendations for tobacco control at European, national and local levels (15 minutes discussion)	Luke Clancy
16.15	17.00	Closure and cocktail

Online registration is open at <http://www.ensp.org/node/1112>

Full details on the SILNE project, including information releases and specific reports are available at <http://silne.ensp.org>